PART II
RULES 12b-25(b) AND (c)

If the subject report could not be filed without unreasonable effort or expense and the registrant seeks relief pursuant to Rule 12b-25(b), the following should be completed. (Check box if appropriate.)

- (a) The reason described in reasonable detail in Part III of this form could not be eliminated without unreasonable effort or expense;
- (b) The subject annual report, semi-annual report, transition report on Form 10-K, Form 20-F, Form 11-K, Form N-SAR or Form N-CSR, or portion thereof, will be filed on or before the fifteenth calendar day following the prescribed due date; or the subject quarterly report or transition report on Form 10-Q or subject distribution report on Form 10-D, or portion thereof, will be filed on or before the fifth calendar day following the prescribed due date; and
- (c) The accountant's statement or other exhibit required by Rule 12b-25(c) has been attached if applicable.

PART III
NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

As previously disclosed, the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors of Fabrinet (the "Company") is currently conducting an internal investigation to determine whether there were any violations of the Company's accounting policies. Specifically, the Audit Committee is investigating various cut-off issues, including procedures surrounding revenue cut-off. The Audit Committee has not reached any conclusion because the investigation is ongoing. Consequently, the Company is not in a position to file its Annual Report on Form 10-K for its fiscal year ended June 27, 2014 (the "Form 10-K") until after the completion of the Audit Committee's investigation. The Company is also currently evaluating whether there may be any deficiencies with the Company's disclosure controls and procedures and internal control over financial reporting.

Forward-Looking Statements

“Safe Harbor” Statement Under U.S. Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995

This Form 12b-25 contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the “Exchange Act”), regarding the Company’s expectation to file the Form 10-K within the permitted 15-day extension of the prescribed due date of September 10, 2014.

These forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties, and actual results could vary materially from these forward-looking statements. Factors that may cause future results to differ materially from management’s current expectations include, among other things, the discovery of additional information relevant to the internal investigation; the conclusions of the Audit Committee (and the timing of the conclusions) concerning matters relating to the internal investigation; the timing of the review by, and the conclusions of, our independent registered public accounting firm regarding the internal investigation and our financial statements; the risk that the completion and filing of the Form 10-K will take longer than expected; and the risk that the Company will be unable to file the Form 10-K within the extension period of 15 calendar days provided under Rule 12b-25 of the Exchange Act. We disclaim any obligation to update information contained in these forward-looking statements whether as a result of new information, future events, or otherwise.
